Solidarity with the workers and trade union of Alten Spain.

Trade Unions writers express the highest expression of solidarity with the workers of Alten Spain these days have been hit by yet another restructuring which will involve 135 of them will lose their jobs over the 90 July 2012.

On January 24, 2013 after a long negotiation the OSS Spanish Alten Spain have reached an agreement that using the Spanish law favors voluntary redundancies.

And a plan to reduce progressive wage.

The company agreed to a Joint Advisory Committee whit the task of monitoring the implementation of Agreement.

The trade unions hope that you will respect the agreements signed with the unions Spanish and respecting the dignity of workers who have given much to society and will remain without a job.
